

Helping Jamie

By Jane McBride Choate
(Based on a true story)

I'll walk with you. I'll talk with you. That's how I'll show my love for you (Children's Songbook, 140–41).

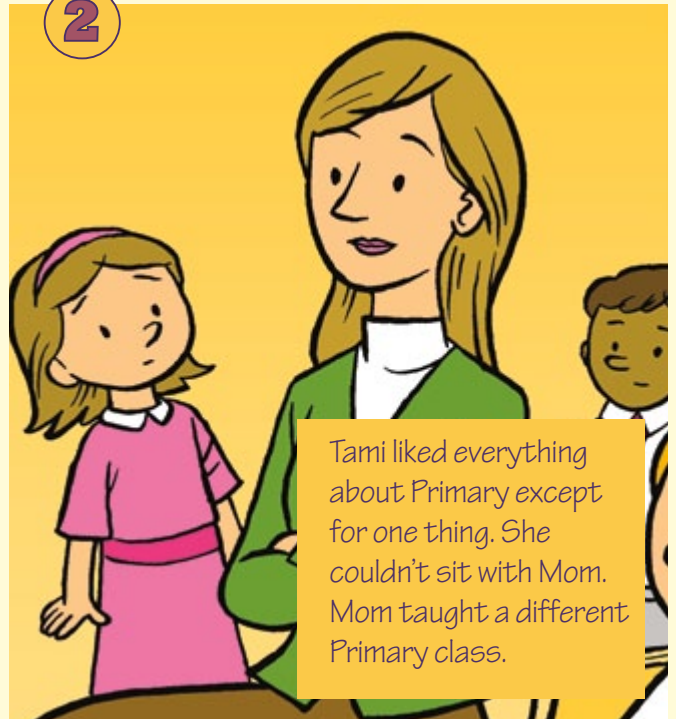

1

Tami liked to go to Primary. She liked learning about Jesus, she liked to sing, and she liked her teacher, Sister Brown.

2

Tami liked everything about Primary except for one thing. She couldn't sit with Mom. Mom taught a different Primary class.

3

Mom, I want to sit with you.

You need to sit with your Primary class, and I need to sit with mine.

4

Tami walked to the chairs where her class was sitting. She was not happy.

5

Tami saw that Jamie was sitting all by herself. Jamie was new to Primary. She was crying.

6

Tami sat in the chair next to Jamie.

Don't cry.
It's OK.

7

I want my mom.

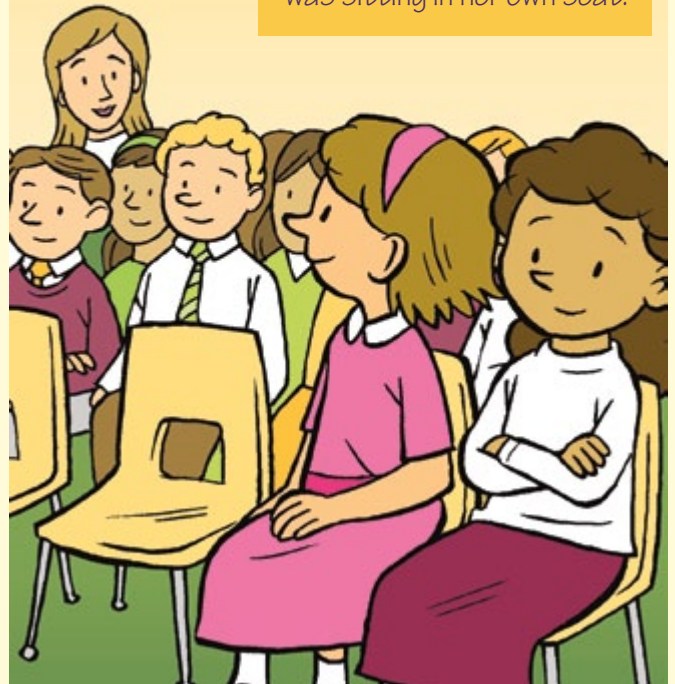

I know, but Sister Brown is really nice. I'll sit next to you so we can be together.

Thank you.

8

Tami saw Mom smiling at her. It felt good to help Jamie. She was glad she was sitting in her own seat.

Daily Prayers

By Cheryl Slinker

On my knees
Beside my bed,
I fold my arms;
I bow my head.
To Heavenly Father
I humbly pray,
As I start each morning
And end each day.
