

The Right Dress

By Sarah Chow

Based on a true story

"Be thou an example of the believers" (1 Timothy 4:12).

4. Anna loved the two sister missionaries in her ward. They shook her hand at church, they smiled when she waved at them on the street, and they prayed with her family when they came to dinner.

5. On Sunday, Anna could hardly wait to show the missionaries her new dress. When she saw them at church, she twirled around for them.

6. You do look just like us.

And you don't just look like a missionary; you are a missionary!

7. Your mom told me you've been praying for us all week like we asked you to. And look! We brought someone to church today. Your prayers have been helping us.

Thank you, missionary Anna.

I Can Be a Missionary Now!

By Hikari Loftus and Hilary Watkins Lemon

Anna is trying to follow the examples of the missionaries. Follow the instructions below so she can make choices that will help her be a missionary now.

You Will Need: A die or six pieces of paper numbered 1 through 6 in a small paper bag; one coin, dried bean, or other small object for each person.

How to Play: Each player picks a small object to use as a game piece. Taking turns, roll a die or draw a number out of the bag, and move your game piece the number of spaces you roll or draw. If you land on a space that tells something a missionary would do, move forward one extra space. Take turns until everyone has crossed the finish line, where the missionaries are waiting!

HELPS FOR PARENTS

Talk to your children about how dressing modestly shows respect for Heavenly Father and for themselves. Ask them why they think missionaries dress modestly.

Consider sharing your testimony about missionary work with your children. You could share your conversion story, relate an experience you had doing missionary work, or talk about why missionary work is important to you.

You were reverent during church.

You helped your mom fold laundry.

You remembered to pray for the missionaries.

Thank you for being a good missionary!
