

MATT & MANDY

Mandy's giving the lesson at the Cooper family home evening.

... so if we listen, the Spirit can tell us if we're doing something wrong and need to repent.

After the lesson ...

Good lesson on repentance, Mandy.

Hey, I heard about a great new ice cream shop. Let's go there for our treat. I don't know that neighborhood very well, but the GPS I got for Christmas should get us there.

Cool!

Turn left onto Jackson Street.

I think I know this area after all. If we go past Jackson a couple more streets and then turn, we can avoid some traffic lights.

Uh-oh!

Turn around and proceed to Jackson Street. Then turn right.

Guess I should have listened to that little voice the first time. Well, I've listened now, and I can get back on the right track.

Thanks, Dad. You just acted out my repentance lesson!
