

If a neighbor asked you why you go to church, what would you say?

I would tell them I go to church because I believe in my religion, and church is fun.

Ephraim P., age 11, Sydney, Australia

The Lord had a day of rest, and we need one too. On that day, we go to church and learn gospel principles that help us in life. Why not come to our church and try it out?

Madeline C., age 11, South Carolina, USA

Because I want to learn more about Jesus, and Jesus is important.

Charlotte N., age 5, Gyeonggi Province, South Korea

Ingrid: I go to church because I love the Savior, and because I want to go back to live with Heavenly Father.

Lucca: I want to learn to not do bad things and to do good things.

Ingrid and Lucca S., ages 8 and 6, São Paulo, Brazil

I go to church because I believe in God and to learn about the gospel.

Trent M., age 10, Auckland, New Zealand

I go to church because it is amazing and has fun activities to help you learn about Christ. Also, I get a good feeling inside that tells me the Church is true. I would invite them to come to church with me too!

Eden F., age 11, California, USA

Responses are intended for help and perspective, not as pronouncements of Church doctrine.

NEXT QUESTION

“Some nights I’m too tired to pray.

Is it really that important?

And do I need to pray in the morning too?”

Send us your answer and photo by April 30. Email us at friend@ldschurch.org with “Question Corner” in the subject line. Use the permission statement on page 39.

Read more Question Corner answers at FriendQC.lds.org.