What Do You See?

Heavenly Father has given us amazing minds for imagination. Reading helps our imagination grow. What fun things do you see in the picture below? How many stars can you find? How many clouds? How many eyes can you count?

Find more activities at children.lds.org!