

Sandwich Buddies

By Heidi Poelman

(Based on a true story)

1. William hopped into the car next to Jeremy and buckled his seat belt.

Is everybody ready for preschool?

Yes!

Yes!

2. Jeremy's mom started driving down the road, and William opened his lunch box. He pulled out a peanut butter and jelly sandwich and took a big bite.

3. Jeremy looked at William's sandwich. It looked yummy. Jeremy was hungry.

4. Mom, I'm hungry. Do you have something for me to eat?

Sorry, Jeremy. We ate before we left. I don't have anything else.

OK.

5. Jeremy was sad. He wanted a sandwich too.

6. William saw that Jeremy was sad. He pulled off a piece of his sandwich and handed it to Jeremy.

Here you go!

7. Thanks, William. You're nice.

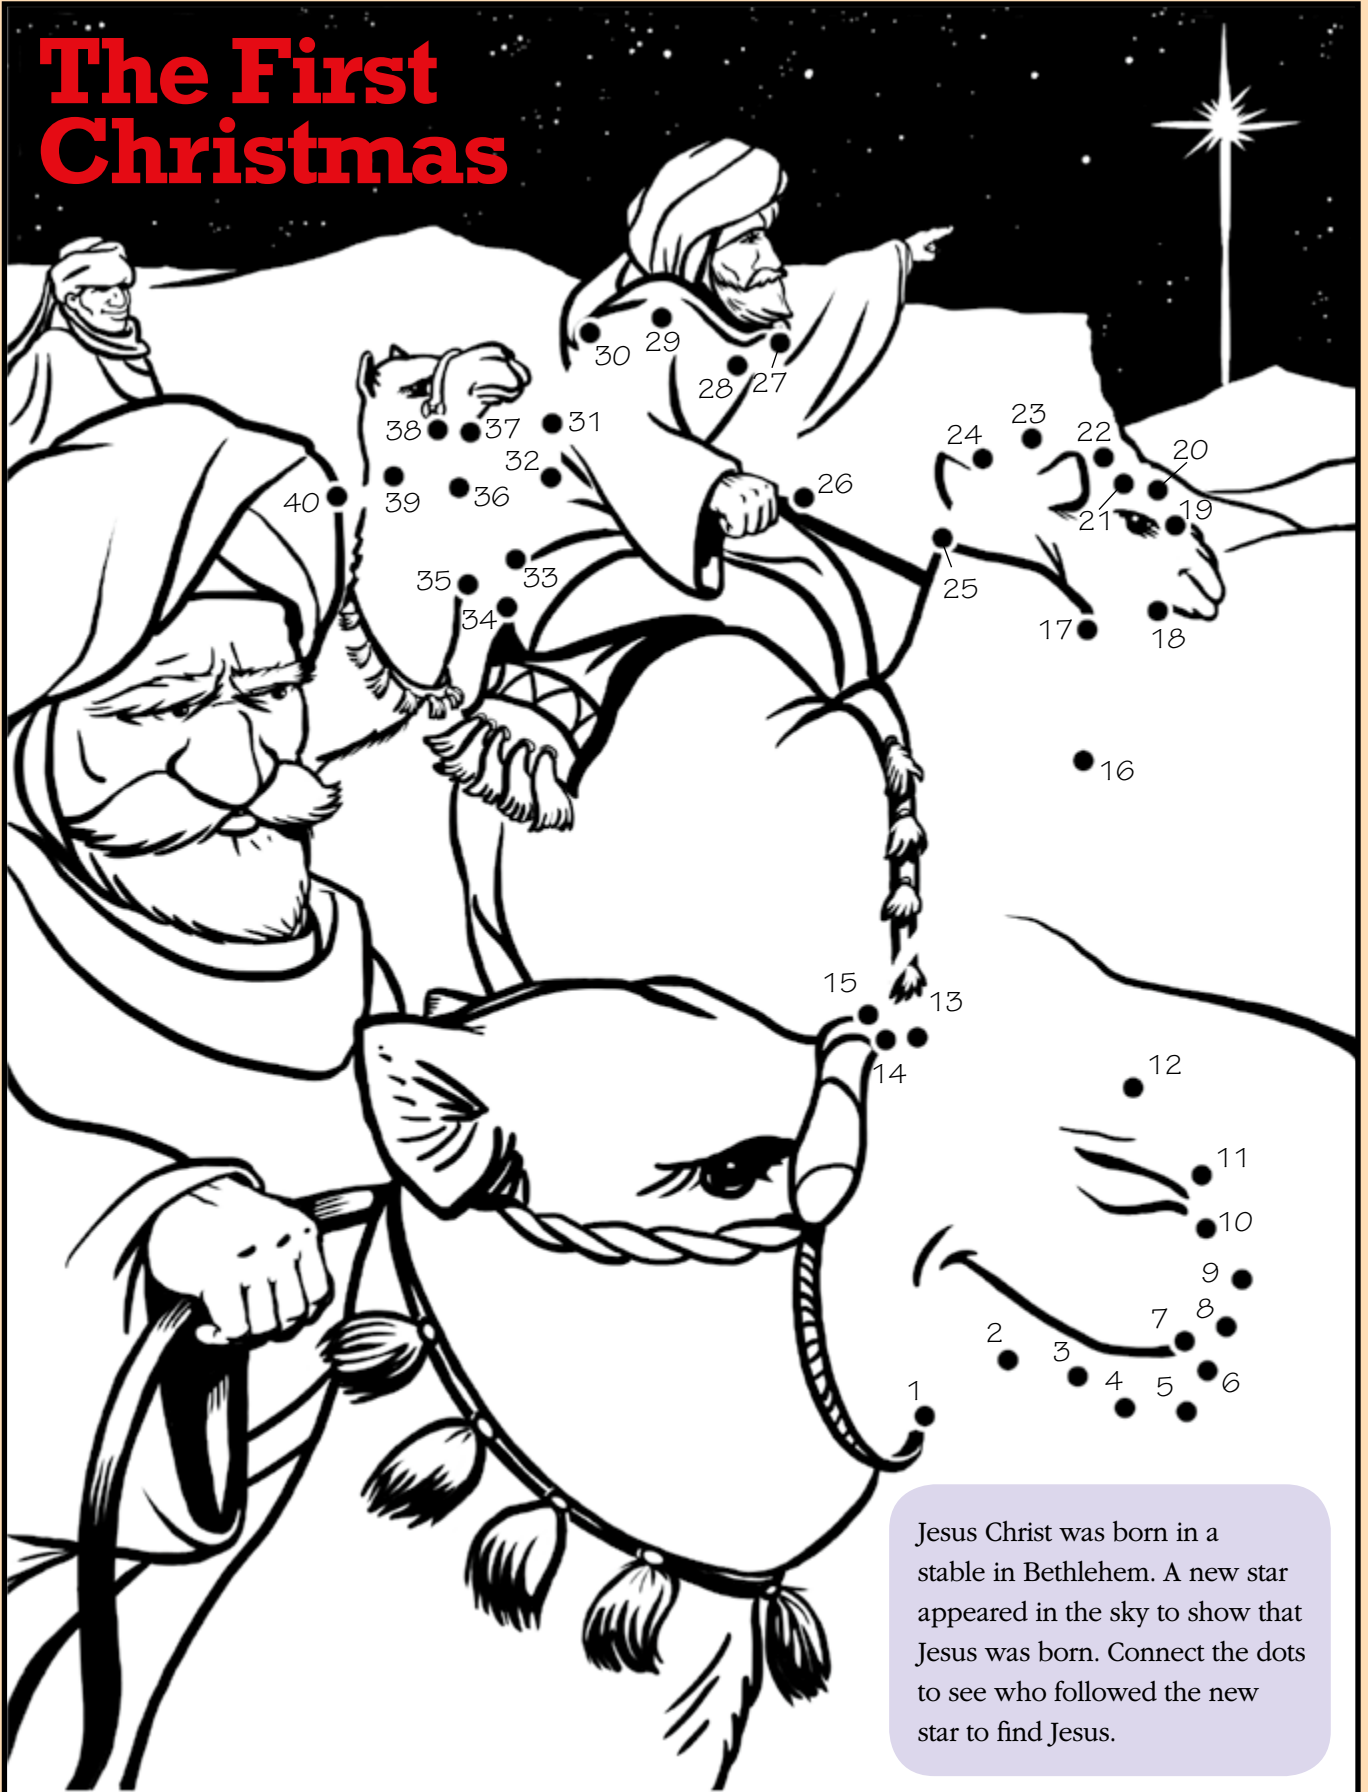

No problem. That's what friends are for!

BEING A FRIEND

One way that you can be a friend is by helping other children. Circle the children on the playground who need help.

The First Christmas

Jesus Christ was born in a stable in Bethlehem. A new star appeared in the sky to show that Jesus was born. Connect the dots to see who followed the new star to find Jesus.
