You can read on your own, with your family, or with a friend. Then tell us about it! (See page 39 to find out how.)

This month's scripture: Moroni 7:41

“And what is it that ye shall hope for? Behold I say unto you that ye shall have hope through the atonement of Christ and the power of his resurrection, to be raised unto life eternal, and this because of your faith in him according to the promise.”

“I, Nephi, having been born of goodly parents” (1 Nephi 1:1). This is my favorite sentence in the whole Book of Mormon. Like Nephi, we can do good to our parents.

I have been reading the Book of Mormon with my family. My brother and I act out the verses we read. I really liked acting out Lehi's dream. We pretended our Christmas tree was the tree of life and the ornaments were the fruit.

Margaret M., age 5, Arizona, USA

We should act out a scripture too!
