

Show and tell

When President Russell M. Nelson came to stake conference, he blessed the children that if we read the Book of Mormon, we would be the best readers in our class. My reading scores have improved a lot since I started reading the Book of Mormon.

Joshua W., age 9, Utah, USA

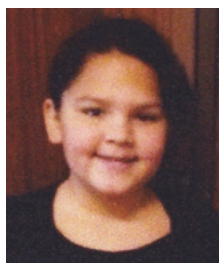

Two friends at school noticed my CTR ring and asked if they could have one. I asked my mom if I could get rings for everyone in my class at school. I told them what it stands for, and they couldn't stop thanking me. I felt happy inside!

Elizabeth D., age 10, Okinawa, Japan

Tyson P., age 7, Washington, USA

Sometimes I'm the only one who comes to Primary in my branch!

Angelina F., age 9, Florida, USA

My school assignment was to make a model of a California landmark, and I chose the Oakland California Temple. I learned that ships and planes use the temple to help them navigate through the fog.

Lorenzo D., age 10, California, USA

I'm grateful for all
From tiny butterflies small
To mountains so tall.
Eve D., age 11, Mississippi, USA

I like to serve the sisters in our ward by playing with their children. I love the happy feeling I get from serving!

Masha K., age 11, Central Federal District, Russia

When I turned 12, my parents took me to The Hague Netherlands Temple, where I was baptized for my great-uncle. It was such a great day!

Aaron W., age 12,
Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany

Me and my friend had a contest to see how many compliments we could give on Valentine's Day.

It made us feel happy!

Annalise W., age 11,
Utah, USA

I feel the Spirit when I'm singing Primary songs. And I try to remember to pray every day.

Noah B., age 8,
Somerset, England

Natalie W., age 11,
Montana, USA

Zachary C., age 8,
Michigan, USA

Sarah C., age 10, New South Wales, Australia

Kayleigh P., age 9, Maryland, USA