A Prophet's Pledge

By President Thomas S. Monson

In the spring of 1848, my greatgreat-grandparents, Charles Stewart Miller and Mary McGowan Miller, left their home in Scotland and journeyed to St. Louis, Missouri, with a group of Saints, arriving there in 1849.

While the family was in St. Louis working to earn enough money to complete their journey to the Salt Lake Valley, a plague of cholera swept through the area. In the space of two weeks, four of the family members succumbed. The children who survived were left orphans, including my greatgrandmother Margaret, who was 13 years old at the time.

The nine remaining Miller children continued to work and save for that journey their parents and brothers would never make. They left St. Louis in the spring of 1850 with four oxen and one wagon, arriving finally in the Salt Lake Valley that same year.

Others of my ancestors faced similar hardships. Through it all, however, their testimonies remained steadfast and firm. From all of them I received a legacy of total dedication to the gospel of Jesus Christ.

With all my heart and the fervency of my soul, I declare that God does live. Jesus is His Son, the Only Begotten of the Father in the flesh. He is our Redeemer; He is our Mediator with the Father. He loves us with a love we cannot fully comprehend, and because He loves us, He gave His life for us. My gratitude to Him is beyond expression. I pledge my life, my strength in serving Him and in directing the affairs of His Church in accordance with His will and by His inspiration.

From an April 2008 general conference address.

A LEGACY OF FAITH

A legacy is a valuable gift that we inherit from our ancestors. President Monson's great-great-grandparents Charles and Mary Miller gave him a legacy of faith in the gospel of Jesus Christ. Fill in the blanks with words from their story.

A PIONEER TODAY

A pioneer is someone who goes somewhere or does something first and shows others the way to follow. Draw a picture of someone you know about or someone in your family who is a pioneer today.

You don't have to push a handcart,

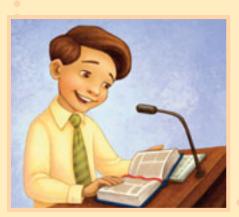

Leave your fam'ly dear,

Or walk a thousand miles or more To be a pioneer!

You do need to have great courage,

Faith to conquer fear,

And work with might for a cause that's right To be a pioneer! ("To Be a Pioneer," Children's Songbook, 218–19)
