Family History Is the Story of Me

Words and music by Nathan Howe

1. My fam’ly is connected like the branches of a tree. The ones who came before us are a part of me. I want to know my ancestors through stories that I find and link the generations in my line.

2. I’ll learn to use technology to trace my fam’ly line. Prepare them to receive their temple work divine. And as I work with others to explore my fam’ly history, I’m adding to the story about my family tree.

3. I like to keep a journal where my story can be told And talk with living relatives as they grow old. And I feel connected to my history. So future generations will know me.
