

Letters of Love

When President Monson was bishop, he wrote letters every month to 23 members of his ward who were serving in the military away from home. One soldier didn't write back for more than a year, but President Monson kept writing. Finally the man wrote back! He said that President Monson's letters had helped him come back to the Church.

Sunday is a great day to write letters! Who could your family write letters to? Look at the list on the right for ideas!

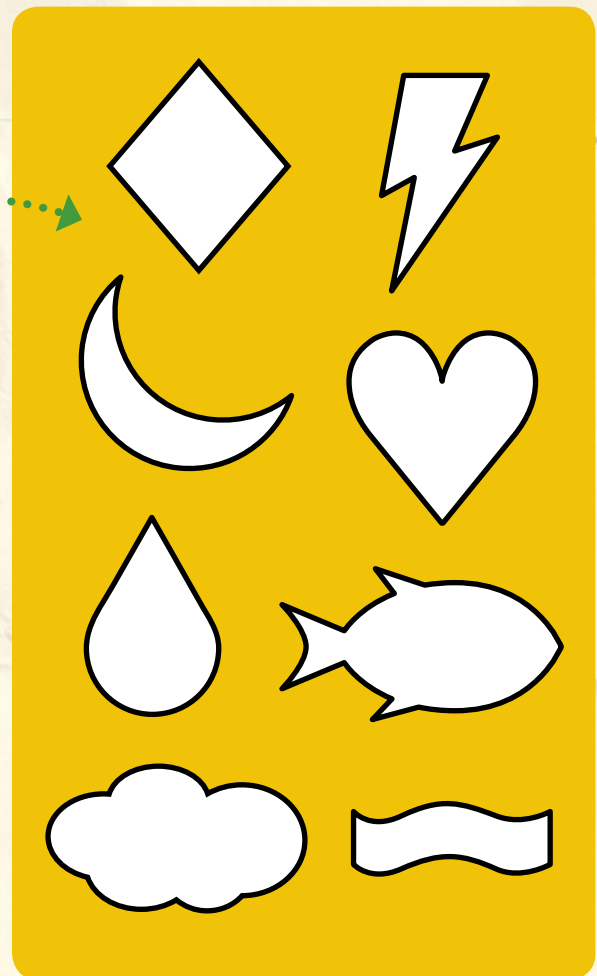

- Family members
- Friends
- Primary classmates
- Ward members
- Missionaries
- People serving in the military
- Children in a hospital
- People living in a care facility

Make special stationery!

Trace shapes along the edge of your paper and color them in.
