

Keep the Commandments

By Darcie Jensen

The Lord gave Moses an important commandment that teaches us how we should spend our time on Sundays. Use the scriptures to find the words in the clues, and then write them in the spaces below. Then circle the pictures of the children who are following this commandment. Find the answer on page 48.

1. The fifth word in Helaman 5:12.
2. The last word in Mark 2:27.
3. The tenth word in Doctrine and Covenants 20:23.
4. The third word in John 15:10.
5. The ninth word in Acts 19:2.

_____ the _____, to _____ it _____.

RUN, JUMP, PLAY!

Last Sock Standing

What you need:

- Four or more players
- Blanket or large towel
- A different colored pair of socks for each player
- A large, open area

How to play:

1. Ball up the pair of socks of each player.
2. Place all the socks in the middle of the blanket.
3. Stand around the blanket. Grab the corners of the blanket and lift it off the ground.
4. Shake the blanket up and down to knock off the socks of the other players. Keep shaking until only one pair of socks remains. The owner of the last pair of socks is the winner.
