liest Camping

DON'T READ THE STORY YET!

First fill in all the blanks, and then read it out loud with your family. Dare you not to laugh!

Once upon a time a family went on a camping trip.

Along the way, they got lost in the forest and ended up at the wrong camp.

"What a funny name," Dad said, reading the sign.

Welcome to Camp _____ adjective animal

I thought we'd be stuck in our _____ forever!"

"Yeah," Joe said. "I'm so ______ I could eat a _____ adjective ______ noun

WHAT'S WHAT?

like "fuzzy" or "yellow"

verb: action word, like "laugh" or "jump"

noun: a person, place, or thing, like "teacher," "lake,"

or "rock"

adjective: descriptive word,

They soon found out that this camp wasn't what they expected. The cabins were made out of large

_____, and the lake was full of ______. favorite soda or juice

____ for dinner.

plural noun

type of food

Later that night, the camp host stopped by and told them a campfire story. It was about _______ -eyed Pete, a sneaky pirate who liked to steal ______ when campers weren't looking and sew them into sails ______ _____ pirate ship. for his _____

adjective