

CASE #10: The Mystery of the Journal

Dear Detective,

Did your mom or dad keep a journal when they were growing up? Ask your parents or grandparents to show you their journals. Can you find a good story they wrote about? Copy it into your detective notes!

If you don't have a journal, get a notebook and start one!

SMART SLEUTH TIP

With permission, you can add these stories in the "Memories" section of FamilySearch.org so others can enjoy them!

10 THINGS TO WRITE OR DRAW IN YOUR JOURNAL

- What you're grateful for
- Funny, happy, sad, or exciting events
- Vacations
- Conference notes
- Your thoughts as you read the scriptures
- Goals
- Pictures of your friends
- Thoughts from lessons and talks
- Your feelings about Jesus
- Beautiful things

I got ready for school today—but it's Saturday!

Ha! I bet your kids will laugh when they read about that.
