

Spot the Differences

BY CHAD E. PHARES

In October, millions of people will gather all over the world to listen to leaders of the Church testify of Jesus Christ.

In 1830, 60 people gathered in the Peter Whitmer Sr. home in Fayette, New York, for the formal organization of the Church. The first meetings and conferences of the Church were held here.

Look at the two photos of what the Peter Whitmer Sr. home looked like, and see if you can spot and circle the 11 differences between the two photos.

Look for the answers on page 49.
