

MATT AND MANDY

The title 'MATT AND MANDY' is written in large, colorful, block letters. Matt is holding up the 'M' and 'A' letters, while Mandy is holding up the 'M' and 'Y' letters. They are both smiling and looking towards each other. The background is a yellow wall with a pattern of black triangles.

Whoever catches that leaf is hero for a day!

Stand aside and let a heroine show you how it's done!

I caught the prettiest leaf in the world!
Here, you can have it. Let's catch some more and I can show you how to make a crown.

That was fun!

I guess I know who the real leaf hero is.
