

The Temple Dedication

By CJ A., age 8, Utah, USA

My first ever temple dedication was for the Provo City Center Temple. When I heard Elder Dallin H. Oaks first start speaking, I knew it would be wonderful. And it was. The first song and speaker I heard, my soul was filled with peace. As I took notes, I knew that what the Apostles were saying was true.

If you're young, I challenge you to take notes, not only at dedications but at your Church meetings too. I hope you feel the Spirit as much as I did at the Provo City Center Temple dedication. ♦

Print cards at CTR2017.lds.org.

CHALLENGE

“I will live now to be worthy to go to the temple and do my part to have an eternal family” (My Gospel Standards).

- Go to temples.lds.org to find a picture of a nearby temple. Draw it or print it out to put in your room.
- Talk to someone you know who has done baptisms or been sealed in the temple.
- Write in your journal about why you want to go to the temple.
- I challenge myself to ...

