How are you standing tall? Send us your footprints!

Standing Tall

Thank you for the “Stand Tall” activity for 2016 (Jan. 2016). Our Primary children took their footprints home to hang in their rooms to help them remember their pledge to read the scriptures each day for at least five minutes. Each child has a five-minute hourglass to help them know how long to read each day.

Dear Friends,

There are so many different kinds of people in the world, and that makes the world interesting and exciting! We are all Heavenly Father’s children, and each of us has things that only we can do. Learn about just a few of Heavenly Father’s children on pages 24 and 28. What makes you different and awesome?

We think you’re amazing!

TV Trouble

I liked the story called “TV Trouble” (March 2015). I liked how Sarah and Sadie chose the right even if it meant they couldn’t play with their friend. Thank you for the Friend!

Happy Inside

I like the Friend because it makes me feel happy inside. The stories about missionaries are my favorite.
