

Show and tell

I like to be nice to people because it makes them happy and me happy.

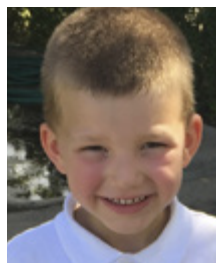

Hank B., age 11, Montana, USA

I love the CTR shield because it reminds me of a knight's shield that protects them from a dragon. I know when I choose the right I'm protected from sin.

Libby R., age 8, Utah, USA

When I go to church, I try to be reverent in sacrament meeting and Primary by singing the songs and reading the scriptures.

Joel R., age 6, Chiang Mai, Thailand

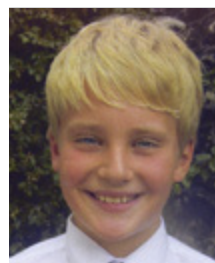

Praying and repenting help me to follow Jesus.

Trajan W., age 9, Utah, USA

Laura F., age 11, Texas, USA

I told my friends about the gospel and that I read the scriptures. I invited them and my teachers to my baptism. I felt happy that they came, and I felt like a missionary.

James D., age 9, Somerset, England

Primary children from the Gateway Gardens Ward, Arizona, USA, joined with another local church to collect school supplies to help children in their community.

Jace R., age 11, Arizona, USA

Find more art online at childart.lds.org!

Andrew S., age 8,
Utah, USA

Maren R., age 10, Iowa, USA

Blake B.,
age 6,
Florida, USA

Audre C., age 7,
Texas, USA

Daniel E., age 11, Utah, USA

We performed a song in American Sign Language for the deaf members in our ward during the Primary sacrament program.

Nalani K., age 10, A.J. and Ashton G., ages 8 and 9, Hawaii, USA

Filling the World with Love This year we're filling our map of the world with your loving hearts. Find out how to send us your heart on page 15!

My friend at school said a bad word. I asked him to please use good words.

Rachel K., age 6,
New South Wales,
Australia

