THE LOST WALLET

ecently I moved to a new home and asked some Church members to help me with a project at my house. In the middle of the project, I left to buy some materials that we needed to finish. After we finished the project, I realized I didn't have my wallet. I panicked because inside my wallet were all my personal documents along with money I had just received from a client that morning. I retraced my steps to where I'd made the purchases but didn't have any luck. I went home and searched to see if I had dropped it somewhere, but I still didn't find it. I began considering the possibility that I would have to acquire new copies of all the documents. Then before leaving my home, a friend asked, "Have you prayed yet?"

I immediately thought, "Of course I've prayed already!"

But in reality, I had not prayed with real intent. Instead, I wanted to force my will on Heavenly Father and somehow make it His duty to help me find my wallet. But then I remembered the scripture in Isaiah 55:8: "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord."

asked Heavenly Father to answer our prayer in order to strengthen the faith of my wife and children.

On Sunday I went to church, and a member who had been with me the day before told me that he had prayed fervently to Heavenly Father that I might find my wallet. He said he had felt that I would find it. Later, as I sat down for my personal study, I began reading Receiving Answers to Our Prayers by Elder Gene R. Cook, emeritus member of the Seventy. The first page told a story with a problem identical to mine: Elder Cook's son lost his wallet, so the family gathered together and prayed to the Lord that they would find it.

After reading that experience, I put what I learned into practice and gathered my wife and children together. We formed a circle, and each person offered a prayer, imploring the Lord to help us find the wallet if it were His will.

I had previously witnessed the power of prayer, but afterward, as I prayed in private, I asked Heavenly Father to answer our prayer in order to strengthen the faith of my wife and children.

The next day a man called me. He said he had found my wallet, including the money. I wept like a child because my prayer was answered and my family's faith was strengthened.

I know that Heavenly Father, even with so many children to attend to, responds to each of us according to His time and in His way. ■
