Why is it important NOT to be JEALOUS of others?

A colorful illustration of a young girl and a young boy. The girl, on the left, has dark hair in a braid and is wearing a green top. The boy, on the right, has short dark hair and is wearing a green t-shirt. They are both smiling. The girl is holding a silver trophy that depicts a runner. The background is a soft, painterly mix of green and blue.

We are not in a race against each other to see who is the wealthiest or the most talented or the most beautiful or even the most blessed.

The race we are really in is the race against sin.

Coveting, pouting, or tearing others down does not make you a better person.

Be kind, and be grateful that God is kind. It is a happy way to live.
