GET READY FOR New Learning Resources for Youth

Beginning in January, teaching and learning in Aaronic Priesthood quorums, Young Women classes, and youth Sunday School classes will be transformed.

Comments from Those Who Have Been Using the New Learning Resources for Youth

Over the past year, stakes throughout the world have been testing a new approach to Sunday learning. And those who have used it say it has made a big difference. Here's what they're saying:

From Youth

"What I love most is the learning—it doesn't stop at just Sunday School. You ... carry on throughout the week. And your teacher gives you assignments, and you need to come prepared for the next Sunday."

"Once you get going in the right direction, it's so easy to get people into these lessons because it's just all the rest of the quorum members who really are teaching."

"At the end of every class ... whoever has been teaching the lesson ... will give us a challenge ... So throughout the week we'll have that challenge to become better."

From Teachers and Leaders

"We discuss the challenges that the girls were given from the previous week. And typically, the experiences that they've had that week in trying to obey and learn the doctrine ... brings the Spirit quicker than anything else we could do."

"We've given the young men opportunities to do this, and they've succeeded. They've been able to be facilitators of gospel discussions."

"As [the youth] speak, their testimonies grow and their understanding of that doctrine becomes part of them."

New Learning Resources for Youth

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Why the change?

This new approach to learning will help youth be better prepared to talk about the gospel with their friends, prepare for missionary and family service now and in the future, and deepen their testimonies of the gospel. This will happen as they actively participate in searching the scriptures, share their thoughts, and accept invitations to apply what they're learning outside of class. In class they will study the current teachings of living prophets.

Which classes will use the new lessons?

Aaronic Priesthood quorums, Young Women classes, and Sunday School classes for youth ages <sup>12</sup>to <sup>18</sup> will use the lessons in Sunday instruction. Each month, the quorums, the Young Women classes, and the Sunday School classes will focus on learning the same doctrine, such as the Godhead, and strengthening one another in living and teaching it.

What will Sunday lessons be like?

The lessons will focus on a specific theme each month, based around gospel questions youth have. Each theme—<sup>12</sup>in all—has several outlines teachers can choose from. More than one week can be spent on an outline if need be. Youth will be learning and practicing what it's like to teach the gospel as they share their experiences and thoughts about the monthly gospel theme.

What is in the learning outlines?

The outlines do not prescribe what or how to teach. Instead, they help teachers first learn the doctrine themselves and then provide learning experiences for the youth. Teachers can tailor the learning experiences to their students' needs. Each outline contains references and links, which will be updated regularly, to Church leaders' recent teachings.

Where does one find the new youth lessons?

Learning outlines (with separate ones for Aaronic Priesthood, Young Women, and Sunday School) are found online at lds.org/youth/learn. Printed copies will be available for those who don't have Internet access.

Will this new Sunday instruction affect Mutual?

Class and quorum presidencies are encouraged to consider the monthly themes while planning Mutual activities. Activity ideas from the learning outlines can be used as a starting place in that planning. To view the outlines go to lds.org/youth/learn.

Which languages will the lessons be available in?

The lessons will be available in Chinese (Cantonese and Mandarin), Danish, Dutch, English, Fijian, Finnish, French, German, Hungarian, Indonesian, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Mongolian, Norwegian, Portuguese, Russian, Samoan, Spanish, Swedish, Thai, Tongan, and Ukrainian. Units that do not use these languages will continue to teach from the lesson materials used in the past.

Coming in January—Come Follow Me: Learning Resources for Youth

HOW WE LEARN TOGETHER IN THE LORD'S WAY

Youth

Learning in the Lord's way includes coming to class prepared to learn, searching the scriptures and words of the prophets, explaining gospel truths to others, and sharing how living the gospel is influencing your life.

Teachers

As you take a personal interest in the lives of your students, you will understand their needs, create relationships, and tailor learning experiences that will enable their personal conversion. The new curriculum will help you understand the doctrine and give you ideas to engage the youth in learning. Teaching this way is not a lecture but a conversation guided by the Spirit.

Parents

Taking a personal interest in what your children are learning will help you help them become responsible for their own learning. Your children will be invited to teach your family what they are learning. As you give them opportunities to do so, their testimonies and ability to share the gospel will grow.

Adult Leaders of Youth

You are responsible for how this curriculum is implemented in your ward or branch. As you provide ongoing training and set an example of teaching in the Lord's way, your teachers will adopt this type of teaching. Focus on the needs of the youth and find ways to help the youth; parents, leaders, and teachers discuss these needs. This new curriculum will help facilitate the conversion of the youth in your ward or branch.
