

President Ballard Visits Texas, USA

The Apostles travel around the world to minister to people and teach them about Jesus Christ.

When a big storm called Hurricane Harvey hit Houston, Texas, USA, many people's homes were flooded or destroyed. President M. Russell Ballard flew there to help!

As soon as his plane landed, he went straight to the command center where the Church collected supplies and sent out Mormon Helping Hands volunteers.

He met missionaries and other Church members who were helping.

Then he visited neighborhoods where many homes were flooded. Some of the streets were blocked, so he walked from house to house. He listened to people and shared Heavenly Father's love with them.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO MINISTER?

Jesus Christ ministered to others, and so do His Apostles. Match the words to the pictures that show how people minister today!

Helping

Listening

Blessing

Sharing

Being kind

How can you help someone today?

When he met an elderly man whose home was damaged, President Ballard said:

I'm one of the Apostles of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. . . We want you to know we love you. And we're here because Jesus Christ would want us to be here.
