Answers to Questions

Every month in the magazine I find guidance and help for my life, and I know that what it contains is true. In the article "God's Guiding Hand" (July 2008), by Elder Wolfgang H. Paul, I found answers to questions that had been on my mind only days before the magazine came. This reinforced for me that the magazine is the word of the Lord, given to us through messages from His faithful servants.

Overcoming Challenges

I am so grateful for the articles about President Henry B. Eyring and President Dieter F. Uchtdorf in the July 2008 Liahona. After reading these articles and praying, I received answers to questions that had been a source of distress to me. I learned that the challenges that my family had experienced had also come to President Eyring and his family, and I saw that we are making the correct choices, even though the logic of the world may say otherwise. Reading of the difficulties President Uchtdorf and his family endured led me to have more humility and gratitude for the blessings I have.
