Family Home Evening Ideas

This issue contains articles and activities that could be used for family home evening. The following are two examples.

“Celebrating Family Home Evening,” page 26: Whether you never miss a week or this is your first try, consider holding a special family home evening in honor of family home evening! You could read the article to see how families around the world enjoy spending time with each other while learning the gospel. Consider discussing how you will achieve your goal of holding family home evening. How might you need to adapt it to accommodate your family's needs? You might recommit as a family to make this 100-year tradition a priority in your own home, regardless of your situation.

“Finding Help,” page 72: Consider reading the article together as a family and then discussing the following questions: (1) What types of images or media might children come into contact with? (2) Which of those would not be good for us to look at or focus on? (3) What would each person do in a situation where they see or hear something they know they shouldn't? Discuss the strategies from “Oh No! Now What?” on page 74 if you need help with ideas (getting away from the situation, talking to parents, doing service, etc.).
