

SNOW

BY STACEY MARIE PENMAN

The snow, the snow,
the pure white glow
with Christmas drawing nigh.
The cold it brings
so often stings
as it falls from the sky.
It stings the skin
but warms within
and brings bright holiday cheer.
It warms the heart
to see the start
of this special time of year.
