Tradition Addition

Grab a friend or family member and fill out this Christmas poem together before reading it out loud. Try not to read the lines ahead of time.

Christmas traditions bring holiday cheer!

Our family adds two or _____ (a number)
new ones each year.

Just last year we gift-wrapped some _____ (plural noun) with bows,

And gave them to friends saying,
“ _____
(four-word sentence where the last word rhymes with nose) ”

This year, however, we’re going all out.

We’re _____ in (verb ending in -ing)
_____, at which point we’ll (location)
shout,

“Merry Christmas to all, and a/an
_____ New Year too!”
(adjective)

We’ll also wear holiday _____ (type of clothing, plural) made of _____ (noun that rhymes with shoe).

Traditions like these give us lots to remember,

Like _____ while _____ (verb ending in -ing) (verb ending in -ing) each 12th of December.

So try it! You’ll like it! There’s lots to choose from.

Like decorating _____,
(plural noun)
topping each with a/an _____ (noun that rhymes with numb)!
