

"Grandpa, tell us about the 'olden days' when you crossed the plains with handcarts and watched Church movies on a filmstrip projector."

"Go out with you? Isn't it enough that we've been carbon dating all semester?"

"Yeah! Ready for the stake daddy-daughter dance?"

"Dad. No..."

"No, Brother Pitts, the keys you'll have as deacons quorum president are not car keys..."

