

Identity

By Janelle Bricknell

If you think I'm quiet You've got it all wrong. As I can be quite lively And chat all day long!

If you think I'm ordinary You're way off your peak. There's no one else like me, That's 'cause I'm unique!

If you think I'm special, You're very close there! It's actually something we all have— It's an Identity we all share!

Janelle Bricknell lives in South Africa.
