

FUN STOP

Should You Go to the Next Church Dance?

Start Here

Are you 14 or older?

Yes

No

Clear some space on the living room floor and hone your dancing skills for now. After your 14th birthday, the world will never be the same.

Excellent! There's no risk of bodily harm. Attend.

How lucky are you?! What a view! Attend, and dance within a protective circle of your more coordinated friends.

No

Yes

Will the next Church dance be held on top of a mountain?

Which of the following best describes your dancing skill level?

I have the coordination of a three-legged wildebeast tumbling down a mountain.

I step on my dance partner's feet several times during a slow song.

I don't dance. I'm a professional back-wall-leaner.

I do alright. I mostly just blend in.

My moves are legendary, heroic, and epic!

Nothing cures dancing insecurity faster than having your toes stepped on. Attend, and boost the self-confidence of your dance partners all night long.

You clearly have the talent to become an international superspy some day. Attend, and further sharpen your skills at blending in.

Are the walls well decorated at your church dances?

No

Yes

The room would be bland without you. Enjoy visiting with friends between songs, and make those walls shine.

You'll enjoy the decorations more than anyone else in the room! Attend, and bask in the fruits of your profession.

'Legendary'? 'Epic'? It's possible you've been reading too many fantasy novels lately. Go to the dance for a change of pace and to teach dance moves to your friends.

BROTHER JONES CAN NEVER RESIST PLAYING HIS FAVORITE SONG FROM HIGH SCHOOL AT LEAST ONCE DURING EVERY STAKE DANCE.

ILLUSTRATIONS BY JOSH TALBOT

VAL CHADWICK BAGLEY