

"We have the responsibility to stand strong with a shield of faith against the fiery darts of the adversary. We are role models to the world, protecting God-given, inalienable rights and freedoms. We stand in defense of our homes and our families. . . . How will you resist [Satan's] aggressive tactics? Put on the whole armor of God."

Elder Robert D. Hales
of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles,
"Stand Strong in Holy Places," April 2013 general conference
