The musical score is written in 6/8 time with a key signature of one flat (Bb). It consists of two systems of music, each with a vocal line and a bass line. The first system contains the first two lines of the song, and the second system contains the last two lines. Chords are indicated above the vocal line: F, Gm, C7, and F. Fingerings are shown with numbers 1-5. A 'slower' marking is placed above the bass line for the final two measures of the second system.
