His Kindness in Me

He was the kindest man on earth,
Never turned anyone away.
Beggars and lepers would come to Him,
And He would take away their pain.

Pre-chorus:
He cared about the children
And held them on his knee,
And He prayed for them
Just like He prays for me.

Chorus:
*Oh, I wish that I was patient,
I wish that I was kind,
I wish that I was like Him,
And I put away my pride.
I make mistakes, I close my heart,
I push away, I fall apart.
But I won't stop till I see
His Kindness In Me.*

He gave comfort to those in need,
And He lifted weary hands,
He taught us how to love relentlessly,
Not just with the words He said.

Pre-chorus:
He asked God to forgive them
When He died on Calvary.
And He prayed for them
Just like He prays for me.

*Oh, I wish that I was patient,
I wish that I was kind,
I wish that I was like Him,
And I put away my pride.
I make mistakes, I close my heart,
I push away, I fall apart.
But I won't stop till I see
His Kindness In Me.
His Kindness In Me.*

*Oh, I wish that I was patient,
I wish that I was kind,
I wish that I was like Him,
And I put away my pride.
I make mistakes, I close my heart,
I push away, I fall apart.
But I won't stop till I see
His Kindness In Me.*
