

I am blessed when I keep my promises (Alma 24:6-24).

The people of Ammon promised not to fight anymore, and they buried their weapons. Write on each line something you could change so you can follow Jesus Christ more fully. For example, you could try to not say mean things to others.

