

Serving One Another

Matthew 6:1–4; 25:35–40

When ye are in the service of your fellow beings ye are only in the service of your God. Mosiah 2:17

The life of Jesus Christ is a wonderful example of service to others. He taught us to love one another and to show kindness without thinking of a reward (see Matthew 6:1–4).

During His mortal ministry Jesus taught His followers to value service and reach out to those in need. In the parable of the sheep and the goats, He explained that He will bless those who feed the hungry, welcome strangers, clothe the naked, and visit the sick. He promised that our charitable acts will never go unnoticed, because “inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me” (Matthew 25:40; see also verses 35–39).

When we are willing to share and show kindness to others, we help our Savior. Many times others’ prayers are answered through our willingness to serve. We should listen to the promptings of the Spirit so we will know where the Lord wants us to offer our help.

Summary

The life of Jesus Christ is a wonderful example of service to others. He taught us to love one another and to show kindness by helping other people. When we serve others, we are showing our love for Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ.

THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST
OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS