

This DVD can be used for gospel instruction at home and at church. It contains four inspirational video presentations that can supplement lesson materials in Church meetings and help family members understand gospel principles.

Called to Serve

Emphasizes the duty of all worthy and able young men to serve a mission, motivates young people to prepare themselves for missions, and strengthens the families of missionaries. Portrays the joys of preparing for and giving missionary service. 19 minutes.

Morality for Youth

Explains the Lord's standard of morality. Provides parents, priesthood and auxiliary leaders, and teachers with a starting place for discussions with youth about staying morally clean. 11 minutes.

Windows of Heaven

A historical drama about a great revelation on the law of tithing that helped the Church get out of debt. Also portrays the miraculous fulfillment of a blessing President Lorenzo Snow gave to members of the Church in St. George, Utah. 32 minutes.

How Rare a Possession: The Book of Mormon

Portrays the origin and coming forth of the Book of Mormon and factual accounts of how early members developed testimonies of the book. 60 minutes.
