CONVERSION AND RETENTION: President Gordon B. Hinckley Speaks to Members of Stake and Ward Councils

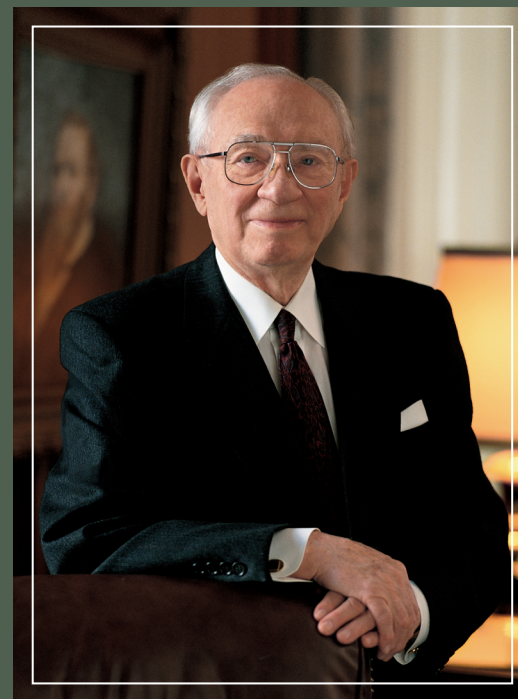

FEBRUARY 21, 1999

In this 1999 satellite broadcast for Church councils, President Gordon B. Hinckley addresses the topics of conversion and retention—the two inseparable parts of missionary work. He explains the various responsibilities that members, leaders, and full-time missionaries have in bringing new people into the Church and helping the new members stay active. He includes a discussion of the three things that every new convert needs: a friend in the Church, a responsibility, and nourishment by the good word of God.

Throughout his address, President Hinckley provides counsel and encouragement for meeting the opportunities and the challenges of missionary work. “Let us, every one, resolve within ourselves to arise to a new opportunity, a new sense of responsibility, a new shouldering of obligation to assist our Father in Heaven in His glorious work of bringing to pass the immortality and eternal life of His sons and daughters throughout the earth.”
