

month after month, year after year to the same uninterested, somewhat critical sister. It is evident when an elderly widow is remembered and taken to ward functions and to Relief Society activities. It is felt when the sister sitting alone in Relief Society receives the invitation, “Come—sit by us.”

In a hundred small ways, all of you wear the mantle of charity. Life is perfect for none of us. Rather than being judgmental and critical of each other, may we have the pure love of Christ for our fellow travelers in this journey through life. May we recognize that each one is doing her best to deal with the challenges which come her way, and may we strive to do our best to help out.

Charity has been defined as “the highest, noblest, strongest kind of love,”¹² the “pure love of Christ . . . ; and whoso is found possessed of it at the last day, it shall be well with [her].”¹³

“Charity never faileth.” May this long-enduring Relief Society motto, this timeless truth, guide you in everything you do. May it permeate your very souls and find expression in all your thoughts and actions.

I express my love to you, my sisters, and pray that heaven’s blessings may ever be yours. In the name of Jesus Christ, amen. ■

NOTES

1. Matthew 7:1.
2. Matthew 7:3.
3. Adapted from Mary Bartels, “The Old Fisherman,” Guideposts, June 1965, 24–25.
4. John 7:24.
5. Mother Teresa, in R. M. Lala, A Touch of Greatness: Encounters with the Eminent (2001), x.
6. John 15:12.
7. James 1:26.
8. 1 Corinthians 13:8.
9. Moroni 7:47.
10. Moroni 10:21.
11. Horace Mann, Lectures on Education (1845), 297.
12. Bible Dictionary, “Charity.”
13. Moroni 7:47.

Conference Story Index

The following is a list of selected experiences from general conference addresses for use in personal study, family home evening, and other teaching. The number refers to the first page of the talk.

Speaker	Story
Elder Jeffrey R. Holland	Jeffrey R. Holland’s parents pay for his mission (6).
Rosemary M. Wixom	Children pray while their mother drives through a blizzard (9).
Elder D. Todd Christofferson	D. Todd Christofferson’s grandfather shears sheep and pays for a mission (16). A business partner divides assets unequally (16).
Elder Robert D. Hales	Robert D. Hales varnishes a floor until he gets himself stuck in a corner (24).
Elder Quentin L. Cook	A bishop helps a man repent of dishonesty (27).
Elder Russell M. Nelson	Russell M. Nelson shares the Book of Mormon with friends (47). A young man joins the Church after exploring mormon.org (47).
Elder Patrick Kearon	Patrick Kearon is stung by a scorpion (50).
Elder Juan A. Uceda	A father gets angry with his daughter during family scripture study (53).
President Henry B. Eyring	Spencer W. Kimball visits Henry B. Eyring’s father in the hospital (59).
President Thomas S. Monson	Clayton M. Christensen refuses to play basketball on Sunday (67).
President Henry B. Eyring	A Relief Society president collects clothing to give to the poor (70).
President Boyd K. Packer	A repentant woman is urged not to look back (74).
Elder Jay E. Jensen	Jay E. Jensen prays and receives a testimony through the Holy Ghost (77).
President Thomas S. Monson	A family learns to give thanks even during hard times (87).
Elder L. Tom Perry	A young priest helps a man with disabilities take the sacrament (91).
Elder Larry R. Lawrence	Parents ask a son to stay home because they have a bad feeling about an activity (98).
Elder Mervyn B. Arnold	A cow dies after eating too much wheat (105).
Elder M. Russell Ballard	A woman begins the descent into addiction through prescription drugs (108).
Silvia H. Allred	Tragedy strikes a family as they return from being sealed in the temple (116).
Barbara Thompson	Barbara Thompson is blessed through visiting teaching Ashley’s mother (119).
President Thomas S. Monson	A couple who run a boarding house allow a disfigured man to stay in their home (122).