

Gospel Library App

A Digital Multi-Tool for Righteous Living

Have you perused the Gospel Library app recently? What you'll find might surprise you. What began as a way to keep the scriptures in your pocket has blossomed into a massive collection of tools and resources to strengthen every testimony and fortify every home.

It's a Magazine Rack

The Church magazine archives go back to 1971! There are also bonus articles that are only available digitally.

It's a Time Machine

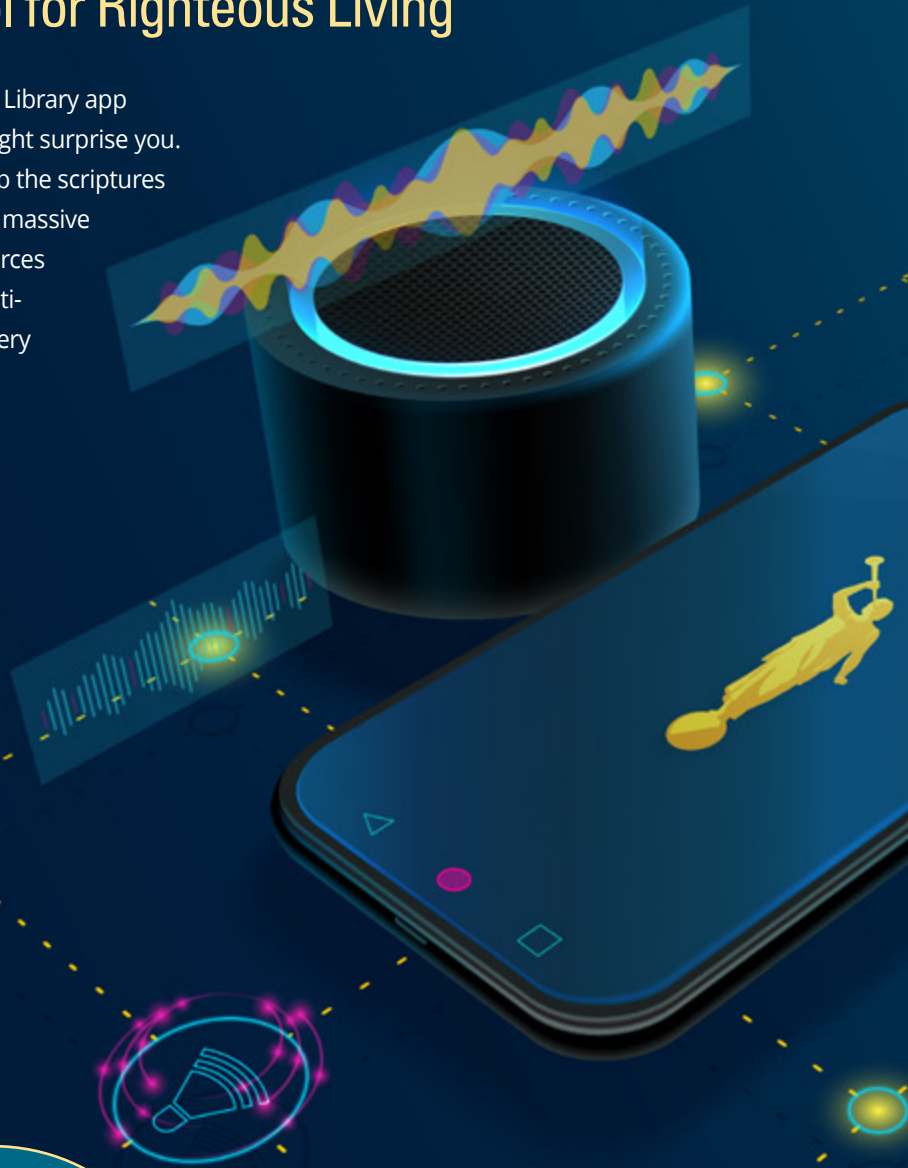

Dive into the past in the Church History section, where you can explore the early days of the Church in New York and elsewhere.

It's a Self-Help Guru

Job hunting? Financial planning? Family struggles? You're not alone. Check out the Self-Reliance and Life Help sections for ways to keep moving forward.

It's a Bookshelf

Hardbound books are heavy. Your phone isn't. Read full-length books in the app, including Jesus the Christ and Daughters in My Kingdom.

It's a
Family Study Guide

Need some help teaching the gospel in your home? Find all the lessons for Come, Follow Me as well as activities and home evening lessons.

It's a
Journal

Personalized notes and highlights that won't be lost in a fire. Plus, whenever you need to share a spiritual thought or speak in sacrament meeting, your notes will be waiting.

It's an
Art Gallery

They say a picture is worth a thousand words. Find plenty in the Gospel Art Book, helpful in any lesson or home evening.

It's a
Personal Assistant

Want to read the Book of Mormon by the end of the year? Study Plans will create a schedule and even remind you when to read!

It's a
Missionary Training Center

Preparing to serve a mission? Learn what mission life is like and what missionaries teach as they spread the gospel throughout the world.
