

What does it mean to be truly converted?

After the Savior’s appearance to the Nephites, they experienced nearly 200 years of unity and peace because they were “all converted unto the Lord” (4 Nephi 1:2).

What are some other examples of the Nephites’ righteous actions? You can read 4 Nephi 1:2–15 and fill in the blanks with more examples you find:

DISCUSSION

- Compare the happiness of the righteous Nephites to the sorrow when they were unrighteous. Ponder the difference and find ways you can become more converted to the Lord.
- Could you choose one thing you can improve on in your life?
- How can these things bring you closer to your friends, family, and the Lord?

Happiness and Unity

The Nephites were happy and united through their righteous actions (see 4 Nephi 1:2–15).

- They were fair and kind to each other.
- They followed the commandments of Christ.
- They were humble in fasting and prayer.

Sorrow and Division

Unfortunately, those years of unity and happiness did not last forever. Eventually, the Nephites stopped obeying the commandments of God (see 4 Nephi 1:24–31). In doing so:

- They became selfish and prideful.
- They built their own churches for financial gain.
- They denied Christ’s Church.
