

President Nelson LOVES Primary Children!

The Primary turns 140 years old this month! President Nelson was once a child of Primary age, just like you. Now he teaches children to choose the right. In April, President Nelson visited Primary children around the world!

President Nelson met children in Bangkok, Thailand, where a new temple will be built soon. He told people how much the temple will bless their country.

Can you imagine shaking hands with the prophet and his wife? These boys met President and Sister Nelson in London, England.

Many families went to hear President Nelson speak in Nairobi, Kenya. A new temple will be built in Kenya too!

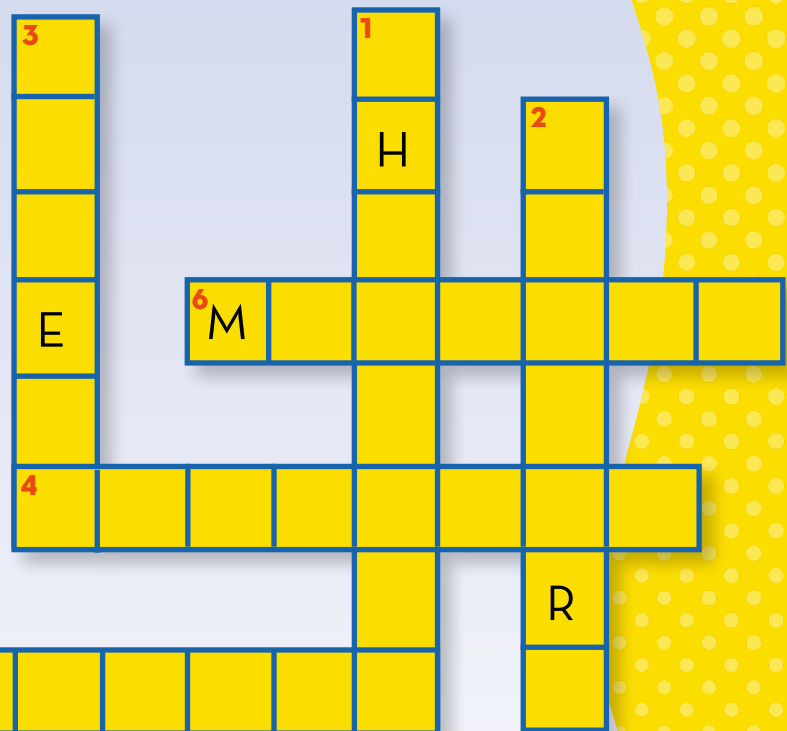

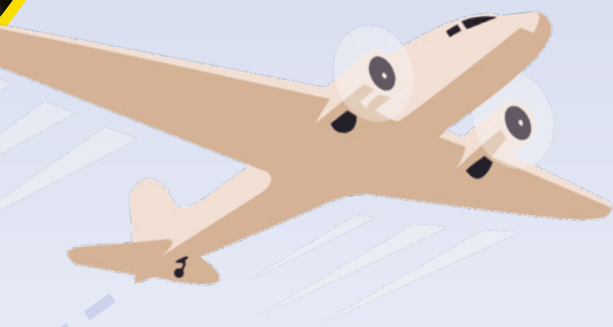

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, PRIMARY!

Finish the sentences below. Then use the words to fill in the puzzle. Check answers on page 39.

1. Sister Aurelia Spencer Rogers first came up with the idea for Primary to help teach _____ in her neighborhood.
2. President John Taylor was the prophet in 1878, when the _____ was organized.
3. Sister _____, who came up with the idea for Primary, was the first Primary president.
4. At first, Primary meetings were held on _____ afternoons.
5. Back then, children went to Primary until they were _____ years old—two years longer than children stay in Primary today.
6. Primary started with 215 children. Now there are about one _____ Primary children all over the world!

These girls saw President Nelson in Nairobi, Kenya.

PRIMARY WRISTBAND

Here's a wristband to cut out and wear. Primary will help you learn about and follow Jesus. And Primary needs you and your talents!

