The Korean alphabet is called Hangul.
Here's a sign with the Church's name in Many Korean families shop at markets like this one, where they can buy fruits, vegetables, meat, and snacks from street vendors. One popular Korean food is bibimbap, a mixed rice dish.

In Korea, it's common to sit on the floor at home or in a restaurant. Many families study, play, and eat together at a table that's low to the ground, like this.

Thanks for visiting South Korea with us. See you next time!

This family is visiting the Seoul Temple. It was dedicated in 1985 in South Korea's capital city.

Every time I face a trial, thinking of Heavenly Father brings peace to my heart. I know that Heavenly Father and Jesus truly live. And I will follow Them.

Sometimes I want to hit my brother if he knocks down my blocks or scribbles on my notebook. But I am learning how to be patient. I am making an effort because I want to choose the right.
