

Day and Night

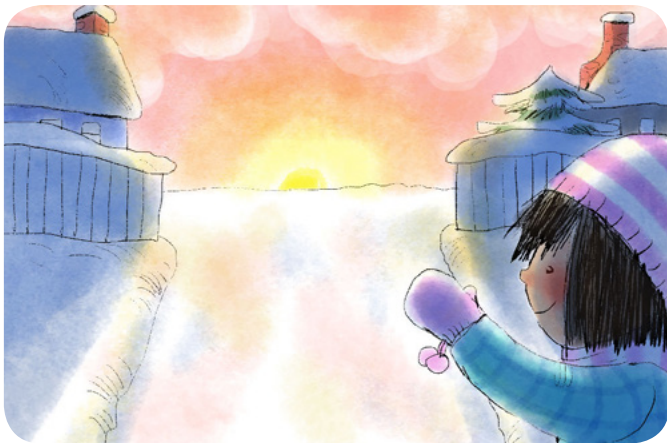

By Jennifer Maddy

Reese's nose is cold,
but the sunshine warms her face.

She spots a cheerful bird hopping across the snow. Chirp, chirp!

Reese sees the glow of a red and orange sunset.

Tree shadows dance across the ground.

Reese smiles up at the sparkling stars and shining moon.

Reese thanks Heavenly Father for the beautiful day and the beautiful night.

Good Night! Good Morning!

Heavenly Father created many kinds of animals.

Match the picture of the animal sleeping with the picture of the animal awake.

Can you make sounds like each animal?
