

Family Night FUN

Here are some ideas you could use for home evening!

SONG:

"When I Am Baptized" (Children's Songbook, 103)

SCRIPTURE:

Matthew 3:13–17

ACTIVITY

1. Read about Jesus being baptized, in Matthew 3 or on page FJ4. Talk about how Jesus set an example for us by being baptized.
2. Play the matching game on page 7.
 3. When someone gets a match, talk about that part of the baptism covenant. How does the sacrament go along with baptism? (See CFM*, pages 19–21, 27.)

"BANANUT" ICE CREAM

The baptism covenant is a promise between two individuals: you and Heavenly Father. Here's a recipe that needs just two ingredients! (This makes about 3 servings.)

Slice and freeze 4 large ripe bananas

Blend them until creamy

Add 2 tablespoons peanut butter

Blend until smooth

Enjoy your banana-peanut-butter ice cream!

MORE IDEAS

- Read "A Promise to Try" (page 4). Talk about how Heavenly Father doesn't expect us to be perfect—just to try, then repent when we mess up. Hang up page 9 as a reminder to keep trying! (See CFM*, page 19.)

- Read "The Yo-Yo Decision" (page 22) and talk about what it means to "resist temptation." (See CFM*, page 23.)

- Is someone in your family getting ready for baptism? Pages 24–25 may help! (See CFM*, pages 19–21, 27.)
