

MATT AND MANDY

Oh, wow!

It's an email from my second-cousin Miranda!

We were good friends until her family moved away and we lost touch.

But she found me.

She lives in Australia now...

... has twins Matt's age...

And ... no way!

Their names are Max and Mindy.

Max and Mindy?

Wow!

Australia!

Twins.

Wonder if they have a kangaroo.

Can we email them back?

Do we have more cousins we don't know about?

In Japan?

Mexico?

Hey, there's a good Sunday activity!

We'll go online to FamilySearch.org and learn more about our family.

England?

Antarctica?

Maybe I can learn which came first—the rubber chicken or the rubber egg.

What can you learn about your family?
