

Cook Like a PIONEER

Joseph Smith loved a food called johnnycake. It's like cornbread. Here's a recipe you can try with your family—if you can solve the puzzle! Answer each equation to find out how much of the ingredients to use. (Be sure to check your answers on page 39 before trying the recipe.)

Johnnycake

- # of wagons + # of coyotes = ____ cups cornmeal
- # of violins - # of frying pans = ____ cups flour
- # of bags of flour - # of campfires = ____ teaspoons baking soda
- # of dancing pioneers - # of red bandanas = ____ teaspoons salt
- # of bags of flour - # of oxen = ____ tablespoons molasses (or honey, or brown sugar)
- # of campfires + # of wagons = ____ cups buttermilk (or add 1 tablespoon lemon juice for each cup of regular milk as a substitute for buttermilk)
- # of dancing pioneers - # of bags of flour = ____ well-beaten eggs

Mix dry ingredients. Stir in molasses and buttermilk. Add the beaten eggs and stir. Pour batter into a greased 9x13-inch (23x33-cm) pan and bake at 400°F (200°C) for 30 minutes. Enjoy with butter and honey!
