Play this game in the dark. The person who's "it" holds a flashlight and tags others by shining the light on them.

Balloon Bop

Divide into two teams, with each team standing or sitting in a circle. Each team tries to keep a balloon afloat by tapping it—no throwing or catching allowed. Each time the balloon hits the ground, that team gets a point. The team with the least points is the winner. Add more balloons the next round!

Hot Lava

Pretend you are escaping from an erupting volcano! Scatter pieces of paper or towels across the grass. Try jumping from paper to paper, making sure not to touch the grass. See who can cross the grass first.
