

SCRIPTURE STORIES

Elijah and the Widow

By Kim Webb Reid

A prophet named Elijah warned people a famine would come. There was no rain, and plants didn't grow. Elijah drank water from a creek. God sent birds to bring him food. But then the creek dried up. God told Elijah to find a woman in town, and she would feed him.

Elijah found the woman and asked her for something to eat. The woman said she only had a little flour and oil left to feed herself and her son.

Elijah promised that if she shared her food with him, she would not run out. The widow had faith in the prophet Elijah and shared her food.

Each day, there was enough food for them to eat. It was a miracle! Then the widow's son got sick and died. But Elijah brought him back to life. The woman was blessed for listening to the prophet.

I am blessed when I listen to the prophet. ●

From 1 Kings 17.