KOREA

The Korean alphabet is called Hangeul. Here's a sign with the Church's name in Hangeul outside a Church building.

Many Korean families shop at markets like this one, where they can buy fruits, vegetables, meat, and snacks from street vendors. One popular Korean food is bibimbap, a mixed rice dish.

In Korea, it's common to sit on the floor at home or in a restaurant. Many families study, play, and eat together at a table that's low to the ground, like this.

This family is visiting the Seoul Temple. It was dedicated in 1985 in South Korea's capital city.
