

Doctrine and Covenants 1

(DECEMBER 28–JANUARY 3)

In Doctrine and Covenants 1, the Lord declared, “These commandments are of me, and were given unto my servants” (verse 24). He explains how this collection of revelations, commandments, and teachings would bless the Church and its early members. His words still apply today.

DISCUSSION

To learn more about these and other blessings, read Doctrine and Covenants 1:19–30.

As you begin studying the Doctrine and Covenants, what do you notice God saying to you?

How does the restored gospel bless us?

Faith will increase in the earth (see verse 21).

The Lord’s everlasting covenant will be established (see verse 22).

The fulness of the gospel will be proclaimed by the weak and simple (see verse 23).

Power to lay the foundation of the Church and to bring it out of obscurity and darkness (see verse 30).
